Introduction

As Lakeland Credit Union Ltd.'s (the "Credit Union") solicitor, you assume the sole responsibility for the accuracy, completeness, and enforceability of all loan and security documents. Please adhere to the below requirements, in addition to all other practices and requirements that you consider to be necessary or desirable to ensure proper registration and priority of all Security required by the Credit Agreement.

Please respond immediately if you are not prepared to comply with these requirements, and a new lawyer will be appointed.

Legal Costs

All costs and associated with security undertaking for this loan, unless otherwise specified, will be borne by the borrower(s), and may be deducted from loan proceeds at closing.

Standard Forms

You can access our standard forms for certain security agreements and documentation in the External Solicitor Documents section of our website.

Where a standard form is provided for certain security required by the Credit Agreement, you are required to use our standard form. Modification to our standard form documents is not permitted without the prior written approval of the Vice President, Credit Risk Management. Please contact the Credit Risk Management team (solicitors@lakelandcreditunion.com) for all request to modify standard forms.

For required security documentation where we have not included a standard form in External Solicitor Documents section of our website, we do not require draft documentation to be provided for the Credit Union's approval. We rely on your expertise to ensure the Credit Union's security documentation is good, valid, and enforceable.

Unusual Circumstances

You must advise us prior to closing of any unusual circumstances. Unusual circumstances include, but are not limited to:

- You become aware of issues which may affect our security, or which are contrary to our instructions;
- There has been a significant escalation in the value of the property over a short period of time which is evident by reviewing the title and the purchase contract;
- Recently discharged mortgage(s) or title transfer(s), within the last 6 months;
- The vendor named in the purchase agreement is not the registered owner of the property at the time the purchase agreement was signed by the mortgage;
- Proposed payouts to parties other than the usual payees including a disbursement to a mortgage broker or someone arranging financing or credits by the to the Borrower;
- A party to the transaction is identified by you as merely lending his/her name to the transaction (e.g. straw buyer), and/or there appears to be a third party who is directing the Borrower(s) with the transaction;
- If the transfer value to be registered on title is not equal to the purchase price noted on the purchase agreement, including any amendments, signed by the Borrower(s);
- If the transfer value to be registered on title is not equal to the purchase price noted on the purchase agreement, including any amendments, signed by the Borrower;

- You become aware that there have been material amendments to the purchase contract which the Credit Union is unaware of;
- The transaction will not close in accordance with the purchase contract;
- The purchase price is not net of any GST rebate or other rebate or cash/cash equivalent, effectively reducing the purchase price;
- There is cash back, price reductions, credits or holdbacks which would effectively reduce the purchase price;
- The purchase agreement has been amended to provide for significant repairs to be made by the Purchaser;
- You become aware that the Borrower has outstanding arrears owed to Canada Revenue Agency (CRA);
- The property is located in a provincial or national park;
- The property is a leasehold;
- The property is or will be located on First Nations or Metis settlement lands;
- Where the transaction is a refinancing, you become aware that the existing mortgage is in default;
- The loan documents are being signed via power of attorney;
- Title insurance was declined for any reason by the insurer.

Representation of Borrower/Member

In all cases where you are acting for the Borrower/Member in addition to the Credit Union we will require you to provide a conflict letter which has been acknowledged by the Borrower/Member.

For all loans where the aggregate limit of all facilities is equal to or greater than $3,000,000.00, or includes non-standard security, the Borrower/Member is required to have their own individual legal representation separate from the solicitor engaged by the Credit Union, unless the Credit Union provides prior written approval for the same solicitor to represent both the Credit Union and the Borrower/Member.

Identification and Verification Required

If you are also acting on behalf of the Borrower, you must satisfy the Identification and Verification requirements of the Law Society of Alberta:

<https://www.lawsociety.ab.ca/lawyers-and-students/trust-accounting-and-safety/anti-money-laundering-model-rules/client-identification-and-verification/>

If required, forms are available on the Law Society of Alberta website.

Names

You must use the full legal names of the Borrower or other grantor of security, and full name of Lakeland Credit Union Ltd. on all loan documents.

Requirement to Inform if Guarantor(s) are not Shareholder(s) of Borrower(s)

If any Guarantor is not a shareholder of the Borrower for which they are required to provide a guarantee, you are required to alert the Credit Union of this as soon as possible upon discovery. We recommend that you determine this as soon as possible following receipt of our instructions.

Searches

We require you to conduct the searches which you consider to be necessary or desirable in the context of the transaction, against the current name and any former name of searched corporate entities, including but not limited to the following:

- Corporate Registry searches for all non-personal entities;
- Personal Property Registry debtor searches for all persons/entities providing personal property security to the Credit Union, including against all current and former corporate names;
- Personal Property Registry search of all specific serial number goods charged by the Credit Union;
- Bankruptcy Office search against the current name of all Borrowers and Guarantors;
- Land Titles Office title and survey plan search against all real property secured by the Credit Union;
- Land Titles Office registration search of each registration which will remain on title prior to the Credit Union's security;
- Bank Act security search for all persons/entities providing a security interest in personal property to the Credit Union, including against all current and former corporate names;
- Worker's Compensation Board search for all non-personal entities;
- Environmental Site Assessment Repository search against all real property secured by the Credit Union;
- Confirm payment of property taxes via tax certificates or searches for all real property secured by the Credit Union;
- For all condominiums:
 - Land Titles Office Condominium Additional Plan Sheet search;
 - Estoppel Certificate, Information Statement, Reserve Fund Study, AGM minutes, Financial Statements and certificate of insurance meeting all requirements of the Condominium Property Act.

We require you to review all registrations and encumbrances which may be registered in priority to the Credit Union, and if necessary, register or require by trust condition that the Borrower's solicitor register satisfactory postponements to ensure that the Security required by the Credit Union has the priority set out in the Credit Agreement. For greater certainty, unless otherwise agreed by the Credit Union in writing, all prior interests in real property must be discharged or postponed save and except for "Permitted Encumbrances" specifically referenced in the Credit Agreement.

Title Insurance

For all security registered against real property, we will always require title insurance from either First Canadian Title, Stewart Title Guaranty Company, or Chicago Title Insurance Company. Title insurance should contain additional endorsements for construction liens, subsequent advances, and variable rate loan, if applicable. Zoning and work order searches are not required where title insurance is obtained unless confirmation of zoning is a precondition in the Credit Agreement.

The title insurance policy must include any or all of the following endorsements, if applicable:

- Where the Property is a bed and breakfast, the bed and breakfast endorsement shall be included;
- Where the loan is being used for construction, the construction loan endorsement needs to be included;
- Where the property may be insulated with UFFI or Asbestos, the UFFI and asbestos endorsement shall be included as well as the controlled substance by-law endorsement;
- Where the Property is a condominium, the condominium endorsement shall be included;
- Where the Property is a residential property containing up to six units, the multi-family dwelling endorsement shall be included;
- Where the Property is a leasehold interest, the leasehold endorsement shall be included;
- Where the water for the Property is from a non-municipal source, the water potability endorsement shall be included;
- Where the Property is serviced by a private septic system, the Private Septic System Endorsement shall be included.

Where a lender's policy of title insurance is obtained, you must ensure that all applicable endorsements applicable to the transaction are obtained respecting matters such as septic, water potability, condominium, multi-family, construction, or any other endorsements which may apply to ensure that we have comprehensive coverage of the applicable risks under the title insurance policy. You must advise us and seek instructions if there are to be any exclusions listed from the title insurance policy.

"Gap Coverage"

Funds may be advanced prior to the registration of our mortgage, provided that a commitment to title insure has been obtained from an approved title insurer bearing a date on or prior to the date of advance, and the executed mortgage and transfer of land (if applicable) have been forwarded to the land titles office for registration.

Insurance

You are required to verify that there is in existence fire/hazard insurance with extended coverage for the full replacement value of the building(s). All policies must state "guaranteed replacement cost" coverage. All policies must show Lakeland Credit Union Ltd. as "First Loss Payee" as described in these instructions and include the standard mortgage clause approved by the Insurance Bureau of Canada.

Additionally, confirmation the Borrower(s) has Commercial General Liability (CGL) insurance, with a minimum coverage amount of $2,000,000 and Lakeland Credit Union Ltd. listed as "Additional Insured" on the policy.

Creditor Life Insurance

You are not required to obtain the “Creditor Life Insurance Acceptance / Waiver” form, listed in the Security section of the Credit Agreement. This form will be obtained internally by the Credit Union and no action is required on your part.

Property Taxes

All realty taxes are to be paid in full to the date of the advance. We require that all property taxes past due and current and all past due and current interest and installment charges owing to any utility, government, municipal or other authority of any nature against the Property, be paid before releasing the Mortgage Loan proceeds. After closing, property taxes will be the responsibility of the Borrower.

Personal Property Registry Registrations

We require you to complete all Personal Property Registry (PPR) registrations in support of the Security as set out in the Credit Agreement. In cases where a previous PPR in favour of the Credit Union already exists, a new PPR is not required. However, you are responsible to ensure the PPR conforms, as set out below. Please use the following information:
